Rough Plans for 2011

Friday April 29th

Thinking of having dinner at Mark's Feedstore in Middletown. One Elvis loves bar-b-que, but also you should do most of your carb loading on Thursday. Friday is for fun and a little protein. We can do the traditional pasta meal if wanted. Let me know thoughts and if you plan on dining with the Elvi.

Saturday April 30th

With the new start Elvis Central is no more. Big thanks to the Godfather of the Elvi (Dr. Dug) on the use of his location for 11 years.

So where should we meet??? The start line is on Main Street at the PeeWee Reese statue in front of Slugger Field. I was thinking of in front of the McDonald's on E. Market Street (Actual Address 420 East Market Street, 40202). I am sure we can't park here, but I am thinking we will be able to safely make our way here. Louisville residents let me know what you think, and if there are better options.

So until further notice plan on meeting McDonald's on E. Market Street (Actual Address 420 East Market Street, 40202) @ 6:45.

Race starts at 7:30--Run 13.1

Logo and Shirts

Let's all give a thank you, thank you very much to Jhn "Hellvis" Wheeler for designing the great logo below.

A good friend of mine (Brian Ullom) owns Play it Again Sports on hubbards Lane in louisville. He is willing to print running shirts with the logo on them for a low price. I need to know from you if you want one and size.
